

Consultant Family Solicitors and Partners

Allard Bailey Family Law is a central London boutique specialising in complex financial and children law cases. We are rising through the tiers of The Legal 500 with a reputation for providing accessible, pragmatic and good value advice.

We achieve this by challenging the traditional legal model, whilst retaining our focus on family law to create a supportive environment, which encourages individual talent to thrive.

We would like to hear from dedicated Family Solicitors and Partners who share our ethos and are interested in joining the team on a consultancy basis.

As a consultant, you will develop and manage your own client base, so it is essential that you are motivated and commercially minded, as well as favouring the resolution focussed approach of the firm.

You will have the freedom to develop your practice without the restraints and responsibilities of a traditional firm.

Salary & Benefits:

- Competitive fee sharing scheme
- Hours and work/life balance set by you
- Cover available for time off
- Modern systems
- Hybrid or remote working
- Choose your own clients
- Be part of a specialist team with like-minded colleagues

Requirements:

- Qualified in England and Wales
- 6+ years' PQE
